To Whom It May Concern:

As a 3rd grade teacher and grade level coach at Isbell Elementary, I have had the pleasure of mentoring and working with Miss Friesenhahn for the past 7 months while she has been a high school intern in my classroom. She is driven, enthusiastic, and develops relationships with each and every student.

Miss Friesenhahn was able to dive into our classroom community with ease. She came to our classroom eager to take extra responsibilities and commit to the students in the class. She has excellent written and verbal communication skills with teachers, peers, and students. Miss Friesenhahn accomplishes all these tasks with great initiative and with a positive attitude. Furthermore, she exudes excitement about teaching. She focuses on the students and is in tune with their needs. Miss Friesenhahn's willingness to learn shows how she is a lifelong learner.

I know that all of these qualities are demonstrative of a leader that I would be proud to recommend. I believe she would be a wonderful addition to any campus or program.

Sincerely,
