To Whom It May Concern:

It is my privilege to write this letter of recommendation for Rachel Friesenhahn as a candidate for a teaching position at your school. As a teacher at Liberty High School, I have had the pleasure of working with Rachel as a student in my class for both 9th and 11th grade English. She has been a delight to work with and consistently demonstrates her growth and mastery of many of the traits that will help her be an excellent teacher for your school's students.

Rachel is a driven, organized, and well-rounded student who consistently personifies the integrity, enthusiasm and compassion needed to be a successful and impactful teacher. Rachel seeks opportunities to improve through hard work, reflection, and requests feedback when she faced challenges. She embraces any opportunity for growth and development which will allow her to stay abreast of the best approaches for addressing the various needs of the diverse learning styles of her students.

In addition to her excellent knowledge and academic skills, Rachel has a wonderful rapport with people of all ages and intellectual abilities, especially younger children. Her ability to connect with other students and her talent at teaching simple concepts, as well as more advanced topics, are both truly superior. She has demonstrated her varied teaching skills through her willingness to work with students of different intellectual levels, adjusting her communication, and demeanor to fit the needs of who she is working with each time. Her ability to build authentic relationships through her interactions and compassion for others gives her the unique ability to connect in a way that makes learners be drawn to working with her.

I recommend Rachel to you without reservation. If you have any further questions about her character or qualifications, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Denise Synatschk
